

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN PREMIER'S BOOK AWARDS

2018

The Premier's Prize for an Emerging Writer

These awards have been made available by the Western Australian Government and are managed by the State Library of Western Australia.

The Premier's Prize for an Emerging Writer ($15,000)

For the first published work of prose, poetry and narrative nonfiction, in any genre, by an author residing in Western Australia. In the case of a book containing original illustrations, the judging panel may determine that the award and prize money be shared between the writer and the illustrator.

Guidelines, Terms and Conditions

Below are the guidelines, terms and conditions for The Premier's Prize for an Emerging Writer.

Closing date

1. The closing date for entries is 5pm (WST) Monday 18 February 2019. The online entry form must be completed by this time and date. Entries received after this deadline will not be accepted.
2. The online entry form will be processed and returned to you by email with your entry number and entry address label details.
3. Copies of work (5) must be received at the State Library no later than 5pm (WST) 25 February 2019. Note they must have been posted by 19 February 2019. Copies received after this date will not be accepted and the related entry will be void.
4. Confirmation that your works have arrived at the State Library will be acknowledged by email. Please allow seven (7) working days to receive this acknowledgment.
5. The State Library of Western Australia takes no responsibility for entries that are not received by the due date.

Entries

6. Only applications entered via the online entry form and submitted with five (5) original copies of work will be considered for The Premier's Prize for an Emerging Writer. Books and other entered material will not be returned. All published works will become the property of the State Library of Western Australia. The State Library reserves the right to add these works to the State Library's collections, give them to judges or donate them to charity.
7. Works may be submitted in multiple categories but an author can only win one category per Awards cycle. If entering multiple categories, a separate entry form must be completed for each category and five (5) books must be provided per category e.g. two categories would need two (2) online entries and ten (10) books.
8. The Western Australian Premier's Book Awards are free to enter, however the cost of sending books to the State Library must be covered by the applicant.
9. All works must be written in the English language, or have parallel English text.
10. All works entered must have been published between 1 January 2018 and 31 December 2018.

11. Only works published for the first time are eligible.
12. Works may be submitted by authors, publishers or literary agents. Publishers or literary agents must have the permission of the author.
13. Joint authors must have the permission of the other author(s) to enter the work.
14. Works entered must be of the author's own work and must not have been published previously in any other format.

Eligibility

15. The applicant must be substantively a Western Australian resident for a minimum of 12 months prior to the closing date of nominations.
16. If a work has joint authorship, one of the joint authors must have been a Western Australian resident for a minimum of 12 months prior to the closing date of nominations. Joint authorship is defined here as meaning co-authors, editors, illustrators, translators etc. Anthologies of poetry or short stories by more than three different authors and compiled by an editor are not eligible.
17. Self-published works are not eligible.
18. Permanent full time employees and Board Members of the State Library of Western Australia and permanent full time employees of the State Records Office (SRO) are not eligible to apply.
19. Books developed specifically as curriculum material are not eligible.
20. The judges may request supporting documentation in relation to any or all of the above eligibility criteria.
21. The judges' decision upon the eligibility of an entry shall be final.

Prize money

22. $15,000 may be awarded for the winning author of The Premier's Prize for an Emerging Writer.
23. It is the responsibility of the applicant to nominate the category into which their work is entered.
24. Prize monies will be paid to the individual in whose name the award has been entered, according to the author's contact details on the online entry form.
25. In the case of the publication containing original illustrations, the judging panel may determine that the award and prize money be shared between the writer and the illustrator.
26. Authors must be living at the time of nomination. If the author passes away after the nominations close and is The Premier's Prize for an Emerging Writer, the money will be paid to their estate.
27. Winners should seek independent advice regarding the tax implications of any prize.

Judging

28. The judges are not required to make awards in all categories if they do not consider the nominated works to be of sufficient merit.
29. The decision of the judges will be final and no discussion or correspondence will be entered into concerning their decisions.
30. The judging process must be free from any interference to allow for a transparent judging process. Any author, publisher, literary agent or lobbyist who attempts to undertake discussions or corresponds with a judge of these awards in relation to an entry or entries may be disqualified.
31. The shortlist will be published on the State Library of Western Australia's website pba.slwa.wa.gov.au
32. The winners will be announced at the Disrupted Festival of Ideas in July 2019. Nominees should be available for media, functions and public engagements. Winning entries and judges' comments will be posted on the State Library of Western Australia's website pba.slwa.wa.gov.au

Winning entries

33. Publishers may include 'Western Australian Premier's Book Awards - SHORTLISTED' and 'Western Australian Premier's Book Awards - WINNER' on subsequent editions of the relevant work in a format supplied by the State Library of Western Australia.
34. The State Library of Western Australia expects that each winner of the Western Australian Premier's Prize for an Emerging Writer will be available from time to time to undertake media interviews and to promote these awards. For this reason, prize recipients should be prepared to speak at the Disrupted Festival of Ideas, undertake a small number of public appearances, media interviews (face to face or via electronic means), photographs or personal appearances at functions promoting these awards up to and including the next year the awards are presented.
35. Publishers and authors will be notified by email if their entry has been shortlisted. Award-winning authors are expected to attend the award presentations in Perth, Western Australia at their own expense.
36. Unsuccessful entries will not be advised personally of the results.

Confidentiality

37. With the exception of personal information on the online entry form, the management of the awards gives no undertaking to keep confidential any information provided with the entries for the awards.

Other

38. Breach of any Guidelines, Terms and Conditions will render an entry invalid.
39. The Western Australian Government may change the Guidelines, Terms and Conditions or vary the awards process at any time either before or after the closing date of entries. No claim or entitlement for compensation for loss can be made for any matter relating to the Western Australian Premier's Book Awards, including but not limited to a failure of the organisers or the State Government to comply with the Guidelines, Terms and Conditions.

Information and enquiries:

Western Australian Premier's Book Awards
State Library of Western Australia
Perth Cultural Centre
25 Francis Street
PERTH WA 6000

Contact: Karen Farmer
Email: premiersbookawards@slwa.wa.gov.au
Telephone: (08) 9427 3173

The closing date for entries is: 18 February 2019 5pm (WST)

Information about the Premier's Book Awards and the online entry form can be found at:

pba.slwa.wa.gov.au